BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado

For over 25 years, Brenda has provided forward-thinking and practical counsel to clients. Her advice spans from the initial stages of design and drafting, to the everyday queries and challenges that emerge in the complex world of ERISA. She collaborates with clients to understand their needs and identify the most suitable compliance options that meet their goals while minimizing legal risks.

Brenda has extensive experience with qualified and nonqualified defined contribution and defined benefit pension plans, in addition to health and welfare plans. She particularly enjoys helping plan sponsors and committees comprehend and execute their fiduciary responsibilities.

CLIENT RESULTS

Representative Clients and Matters

Recommend and prepare documentation for corporate governance structures and best practices for fiduciary governance.

Meet with plan committees and provide ongoing fiduciary training and advice on legal requirements for retirement plans and welfare plans and updates on new developments.

Draft or review plan documents and summary plan descriptions for retirement plans (including 401(k) and defined benefit plans) and welfare plans (including self-insured plans and cafeteria plans) and advise on compliance issues related to these programs.

Represent employers before the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and Department of Labor (DOL) in audits and penalty assessments related to employee benefit plans.

Review service provider agreements and retirement plan fee disclosures.

Review and negotiate service provider agreements for best plan sponsor and fiduciary protections.

Help fiduciaries proactively comply with welfare plan obligations under the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (CAA), including health plan fee disclosures.

Assist with PBGC filings and negotiations for defined benefit plan funding requirements.

Draft severance plans and consult on employee benefits matters in reductions in force (RIFs), including early retirement incentives, partial plan terminations, potential PBGC issues, COBRA, and separation agreements.

Guide employers on corrections through the DOL's Voluntary Fiduciary Correction Program (VFCP) and the IRS program Employee Plans Compliance Resolution System (EPCRS).

Help employers identify risks in due diligence of acquired entities, or prepare plans for sale, and advise buyers on employee benefits structure and implementation for post-deal coverage of employees.

Provide legal compliance support and plan amendments regarding de-risking strategies for defined benefit plans, such as lump sum windows and annuity transfers.

Advise on correction of Section 409A compliance errors in administration of nonqualified deferred compensation plans, and draft IRS correction statements.
