Kit LeVoy advises mid-to-large sized companies that want to efficiently raise or borrow capital through private or public channels or complete a business acquisition, combination or divestiture.

With 20+ years in private practice and 12 years as in-house M&A/Finance counsel, Kit brings a dual perspective and an acute understanding of what is most important to clients in her role as deal advisor.

Kit also provides general corporate advice and assists her clients with a variety of commercial contracts. In addition, she has a significant legal opinion practice.

Kit has served in many firm management roles, including her most recent past role as Administrative Partner of the firm's Denver office, and has also led the business transactions practice group and the firm's recruiting committee. She currently serves as the chair of the firm's opinion committee.

Kit began her career at Holland & Hart and then worked in-house at Time Warner Cable (now part of Charter Communications) and Jones Intercable (now part of Comcast), before returning to Holland & Hart in 1999. Before joining Holland & Hart, Kit served as a law clerk to Judge Will Garwood of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit from 1982-1983.
