Jill Van Noord counsels clients on environmental litigation and compliance matters, with a focus on air quality related matters, and has substantial regulatory and administrative experience counseling clients on compliance with environmental laws and negotiating settlements of regulatory violations.

Jill Van Noord's experience working for various stakeholders in the natural resources arena, including industry, public interest advocacy groups, and regulators, allows her to bring a valuable perspective to counseling clients. Through her current role as a member of the Mined Land Reclamation Board, Jill has first-hand experience with policy making and resolving permit violations. Jill also leverages her regulatory expertise to counsel clients in Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and other safety agency enforcement actions as well as Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulatory compliance.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Jill served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Maria E. Berkenkotter of the Colorado District Court, 20th Judicial District.
