BAR ADMISSIONS

Colorado

Michael has a national reputation as litigation and compliance counsel for numerous national and international internet retailers. He is also a lead partner in the firm's government investigations group, focusing on both federal and state investigations. A former Senior Deputy District Attorney, Michael has tried over one hundred cases to judge and jury, and has litigated cases in the Colorado Court of Appeals, the Colorado Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, as well as several other courts in the United States. Michael has the remarkable distinction of having never lost a civil evidentiary proceeding, whether it be TROs, preliminary injunctions, arbitrations, court and jury trials.

Michael has represented a number of corporate clients through investigations, settlements and litigation with the Federal Trade Commission and various state regulators.

As part of his dedication to community service, Michael served twelve years as a publicly-elected member of the University of Colorado Board of Regents. In 2012 and 2013, his colleagues elected him chair of the Board of Regents, which oversees the $3.8 billion University of Colorado, the third largest employer in the state of Colorado. Michael has been interviewed on higher education issues by CNN, Fox News, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, and other media outlets. In September 2014, Denver Mayor Michael Hancock appointed Michael to the city's Crime Prevention and Control Commission.

Michael clerked for the Honorable Clarence A. Brimmer, United States District Judge for the District of Wyoming.

CLIENT RESULTS

Representative Matters

Some recent successes enjoyed by Mr. Carrigan's clients:

Multi-million dollar verdict in client's favor following a two week jury trial regarding breach of fiduciary duty claims.

Successful defense of trade secret and non-complete claims, resulting in complete vindication and recovery of attorney fees for client.

An insurance brokerage was sued by a former client for numerous claims and asserted damages over $4 million. Following dismissal of certain claims through dispositive motions, Mr. Carrigan led a team through a nine-day jury trial, resulting in a total defense verdict after less than two hours of deliberations.

An insurance company sought declaratory judgment to void policy on multi-million structure and the first mortgage holder. Mr. Carrigan resisted the insurer's multi-year effort to rescind its policy and obtained proceeds satisfying the full balance of the mortgage and fees.

A state prosecutor charged a construction contractor with two counts of felony theft of project funds. Mr. Carrigan was hired after a court bound the case over after a preliminary hearing. Mr. Carrigan coordinated a presentation of evidence that led the prosecution to dismiss the case in its entirety. He then filed a federal lawsuit against the complaining parties and promptly secured a seven-figure policy limits settlement by their insurer.

A small software company was the subject of a federal lawsuit seeking a restraining order and more than $10 million in damages. Within three weeks, the temporary restraining order was defeated and the adverse party agreed to withdraw its complaint and stipulated to a $1 million payment to Mr. Carrigan's client.
