Amber provides start to finish counsel to owners, developers, and general contractors on large commercial, gaming, stadium, arena, and transportation projects. From project inception and financing through construction and operation agreements, she advises, negotiates, drafts, and enforces contracts and agreements that protect and promote her clients' interest, including management agreements, lease agreements, development agreements, and construction agreements. Drawing on her litigation experience, when disputes arise, she can assist clients by resolving issues through mediation, arbitration, or where necessary, litigation.

Amber has an in-depth understanding of the realities and risks owners and developers face every day. She works closely with her clients so that she knows their objectives as she drafts the legal documents necessary for cost-effective, efficient project development. At every step in each negotiation and every document, Amber protects her clients' interests.
