Ryan is an associate in the commercial litigation practice group.

Ryan represents clients in complex commercial disputes involving dissolution of various business entities, breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contract, shareholder disputes, and more. His broad range of experience includes all aspects of litigation strategy, including motion practice, discovery, dispute resolution, and appellate briefing. Ryan applies his experiences to advocate for his clients' interests in federal and state courts from the inception of a case through trial as well as in any necessary appellate proceedings.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Ryan clerked for the Honorable Michael P. Gibbons of the Nevada Court of Appeals and was a litigation associate for Jones Day.
