She brings a decade of experience as a paralegal and legal secretary. Marcy has worked with county clerk offices and title companies to clear title and assist with closings, and with judicial assistants to coordinate hearings and docket court dates. She draws on her background in consumer finance and credit to provide cross office support to attorneys on matters relating to real estate transactions.

Our clients benefit from Marcy's knowledge of landlord/tenant matters and civil litigation, as well as her familiarity with the district, municipal, and circuit courts in northern Colorado and Wyoming.
