

Thomas DeVine

In Memoriam: 1953-2024

With profound sadness, we announce the loss of our colleague and friend, Thomas (Tom) DeVine on April 30, 2024.

Tom joined Holland & Hart as a partner in 2013 after practicing at several Am Law 200 firms. He was a valued member of the firm's real estate and finance team, working with real estate lenders, borrowers, and developers on a wide variety of transactions and projects.

Tom cared passionately about his clients, intently focused on their business needs as though they were his own. His genuine commitment to find practical solutions and protect clients' interests made him a trusted business and legal advisor for many decades-long relationships.

Tom joined the firm in the later stages of his career and made a significant, lasting impact. Known for his warm, upbeat attitude and uncanny sense of humor, he served as a mentor, friend, and sage advisor to attorneys and business professionals.

Tom was a beloved member of the Holland & Hart community. He is tremendously missed.
