Nate leverages his extensive international experience to help clients navigate various finance, tax, property, trade, and compliance issues.

Nate has worked with both privately held and publicly traded companies and investment banks around the world to assist with global offerings and share restructurings. He has comprehensive experience counseling clients in various equity and debt securities offerings, as well as drafting documentation and ensuring compliance with securities laws and regulations in multiple jurisdictions.

His global transactional experience and fluency in Cantonese and Mandarin Chinese make Nate an invaluable asset in international transactions.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Nate worked as a vice president in both Global Compliance Employee Services and Asset Management Compliance at Goldman Sachs and practiced corporate law at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Hong Kong. During this time, he was involved in multiple global offerings with international organizations totaling over $16 billion.
