Rocío provides guidance to clients in the energy and infrastructure industries at all stages of project development and finance.

Rocío's strong background in financing of energy, infrastructure, mining, and renewable energy projects gives her valuable experience to offer clients a diverse approach to their projects. She is uniquely positioned to provide insights and solutions to project developers throughout the life cycle of their projects, from site acquisition through financing and commercial operation.

She utilizes her prior experience representing project finance lenders to assist developer clients in proactively anticipating the requirements of lenders, both from a diligence and a negotiation perspective, when drafting and negotiating project development and financing agreements. Rocío also assists companies on general corporate matters in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other commercial transactions.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Rocío was a Global Project Energy and Infrastructure Finance Associate at Milbank LLP in New York, New York where her practice focused on representing lenders in large international project financing transactions. She also interned for Judge Gustavo Gelpí of the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico.
