Eben has extensive experience in real estate matters across the Mountain West and nationally, working with developers, lenders, and owners on energy, telecommunications, and resort projects.

Eben regularly counsels clients on utility-scale renewable energy, telecommunications infrastructure, debt finance, and resort development projects. He represents developers, landowners, and lenders in all phases of real estate development, as well as acquisitions and sales.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Eben worked at an AmLaw 100 firm. Prior to that, he practiced in several Colorado resort communities, including Breckenridge, Aspen, and Steamboat Springs. While in Steamboat, Eben served as Assistant County Attorney to Routt County, representing the County in a wide variety of land use, environmental and local government matters.
