Michael supports emerging companies through corporate matters from business formation to mergers, acquisitions, securities offerings, and more.

His practice focuses on guiding clients through the early stages of the business lifecycle. Michael helps clients navigate the complexities of a new business, ensuring compliance through every step of the process and provides valuable end-to-end strategic transactional support for companies in a range of industries.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Michael most recently worked as a law clerk for the City Attorney's Office in Elk Grove, California. Before law school, he held several leadership roles in banking, operations, and consulting.
