Cassidy provides counsel to clients regarding trademark and copyright matters, including brand strategy, portfolio management, clearance, prosecution, licensing, and enforcement. She helps clients manage global trademark portfolios, involving continued maintenance, monitoring, and enforcement of registrations and trademark rights.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, Cassidy was an associate at an Am Law 100 firm where she focused on trademark and copyright prosecution and enforcement matters. She also gained valuable experience and perspective as in-house trademark counsel, when she was seconded with a global Fortune 500 company. During law school, Cassidy served as a legal intern for the House Judiciary Committee and a legal clerk for the US Copyright Office, as well as an externship with the Recording Industry Association of America.
