BAR ADMISSIONS

Utah

Leveraging her experience as associate general counsel overseeing litigation and compliance for a Utah-based company with international operations, April advises clients on the risks and benefits of pursuing litigation. She develops strategies to defend business interests before judges, juries, and arbitrators and helps ensure regulatory compliance with relevant state and federal agencies and trade compliance groups.

April has experience with breach of contract claims, shareholder disputes, trade controls, and similar general business litigation matters. She brings an enthusiastic approach to solving each dispute and guides clients toward strategies that mitigate the need for intervention by third parties.

Prior to joining Holland & Hart, April served as associate general counsel, litigation and compliance, for a Utah-based company. For five years, she was a litigation attorney at a Utah-based law firm.
