Ben represents clients in the mining, power generation, and agricultural industries in complex environmental litigation and regulatory challenges.

Ben assists clients through all phases of litigation, from case development and discovery to dispositive motions and appeals in both state and federal courts. His experience includes handling commercial and natural resource disputes, CERCLA contribution actions, and water rights issues.

Before joining Holland & Hart, Ben was an associate at Perkins Coie in Phoenix, where he worked in the Environmental Litigation practice. He previously served as a law clerk at Noble Law Office in Yuma, Arizona, focusing on Colorado River water law and policy issues affecting Arizona agricultural interests.
