John Husband, chair of Holland & Hart's Management Committee, was recently featured in Colorado SuperLawyers magazine. The magazine not only features Mr. Husband's successful career working with clients on labor and employment issues, but also describes the lessons he learned from playing football for Woody Hayes. Mr. Husband was recently ranked as one of the top fifty attorneys in Colorado by SuperLawyers.

The article states, "In his 30-year career, John M. Husband, a labor and employment lawyer with Holland & Hart, has represented Fortune 500 companies, tried hundreds of cases in 21 states and faced some of the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals' toughest judges. Many would balk at the pressure but not Husband. After all, he played football for Woody Hayes." Click here to read more about Mr. Husband's experience as both a linebacker and lawyer.

In addition to the feature article on Mr. Husband, 60 other Holland & Hart attorneys were recognized by the publication as leaders in their fields.
